Fun new look. I cannot see my domes' desing updated as Stellar. Where do I select it? They just look ordinary all glass yellow domes.. Nice cosmetic pack. Hope there is more soon. Although this is only for a few of the domes, It probably is the best style for matching the round domes to the non-round domes (if they are using the white style). Its not exactly matching since one is blue & white and the other is white but they do look nicer than the default yellow styles, that all domes have, imo.. if you love Stellaris then GET IT !!! JUST DO IT. It is basically a cosmetic upgrade. I recommend you get it if you have the money to spare, otherwise save it. It really doesn't add much to your experience unless you use the skins to color-coridinate your domes based on there purpose if you manage your colonies that way. It does look really good though, and gives more immersion to have different looking domes, but that's about it.

Purly cosmetic, but by far the nicest looking domes in the game!
